24.	Summary of the Event	The CIL training was organised by CIL on 7th August and 8th August 2025 for 1st Semester BBA – Section A, B & C students on the topic –Soft Skills Training. The session resource persons were Prof. Amlan Bhattacharya and Ms Anjum Afsana . Soft skills training session was mainly focused on developing personal attributes, communication abilities, and interpersonal skills that enable students to work effectively with others and succeed in both professional and personal environments. Unlike technical skills, which relate to specific job knowledge, soft skills such as teamwork, leadership, problem-solving, adaptability, emotional intelligence, and time management are transferable across roles and industries.

		Training in these areas would help students build confidence, improve collaboration, manage conflict, and adapt to changing work situations. The trainers tried to impart the session in a way that boosts confidence, collaboration, and conflict management while preparing students to adapt to change. The take away of the session for students was Organizations invest in it to enhance productivity, workplace culture, and customer relations. In today's fast-changing world, soft skills are vital for career growth and success.

Arya adesh,

It was an interesting session taken by Amalan sir it was about how will drive to work in corporate environment and what skill set what we have to carry and he gave us insight about his experiences in his work field which helped us to understand and learn from him
