Feedback on Placement Drive

The session conducted for BBA students on 31st March 2026 on placement was very informative & engaging. It gave a clear understanding of the current job market, placement process, and the expectations of recruiters. The session was well-structured and easy to follow, which made it interesting throughout. The first resource person explained the importance of communication skills, confidence and professionalism.

The second resource person focused more on interview preparation, resume building and how to present ourselves effectively during placement drives. The tips & strategies shared were practical and will definitely help us in our future career.

Overall, the session was well-structured, motivating and gave us clear idea about how to prepare for placements. It boosted our confidence & helped us understand the skills we need to develop. Such sessions are very beneficial and we look forward to more such interactive programs in the future.
