This event was a really fun & crazy. We learnt so much on how to work together in the most beautiful art that is the art of cooking that brings everyone together & get people to learn how to create & make new things.

Cooking outside the house & in your comfortable space is an experience lived differently every time we do it.

This time it's not at a friend's place or at our aunt's it's with friends at college out in the open in the building we come everyday to study & surprise there is creativity with food everywhere!

We enjoyed every bit of it.
