Report on TCS Campus Recruitment

The department of Management - BBA in association with career Planning and Placement Unit - GAMYA, organised a TCS Campus Recruitment Awareness and Registration Programme for the V sem BBA students.

The programme was conducted under the guidelines of IGAC with the objective of creating awareness among students about campus recruitment opportunities & helping them understand the registration & recruitment process of TCS.

The session gave us useful information about the TCS recruitment process, registration requirements & the importance of being prepared for campus placements. It also helped students understand how placement opportunities can be approached with better awareness and preparation.

Overall the programme was informative and beneficial for the students as it connected their academic journey with practical career opportunities. It also motivated the students to prepare ~~tho~~ themselves better for recruitment drives and take an active interest in campus placements.

The programme concluded with a positive response from students and served as a valuable step towards strengthening their career awareness and placement readiness.
