The Accounts Club organized an engaging crossword puzzle activity titled "Wordwar". Designed to test participants' knowledge of accounting terms and concepts, the event featured a competitive yet fun environment where students worked Two in a teams to solve challenging crossword clues related to the world of finance and accounting. The activity aimed to enhance subject knowledge through an interactive learning method and promote critical thinking among students. Participants enthusiastically tackled the clues, demonstrating their grasp of accounting terminology, and the fastest solvers were awarded prizes. The event was a great success, encouraging learning beyond textbooks and strengthening students' interest in the subject
