23.	Summary of the Event (Around 100 words)	The Faculty Development Program on 'Work like a Master,' organized by the Department of Commerce and Management, on 30th November 2024, was a resounding success. The session was led by a distinguished resource person, Ms. Sushma Lingra, who shared valuable in-depth knowledge on topics such as enhancing the skills, mindset, and professional efficiency of faculty members. The program focused on providing insights into mastering key aspects of academic and personal productivity. The program empowered the participants with actionable strategies to work more efficiently and effectively. Faculty members gained a deeper understanding of how to cultivate a mastery mindset, enhance their productivity, and lead with purpose in their academic roles. This intensive program was designed to highlight the importance of team work. Over 20 BBA faculty members from the department participated and shared their experiences and discussed the challenges they face in their professional lives, followed by a vote of thanks in the program.

The Faculty Development program "work like a master" was an invaluable experience. The trainer were expert and delivered engaging activity. I gained practical skills and valuable knowledge and networking opportunities. However, some areas for improvement include allocating more time for discussion, providing additional skills. Overall I rate the program fully appreciable and effort put into organizing it.
