23.	Summary of the Event	The BCA Department conducted Pick and Speak Activity on 26/03/25. To enhance students' public speaking skills and boost their confidence. The activity required participants to pick a random topic and speak on it spontaneously for a short duration. The event saw active participation from students, with each one showcasing their ability to think quickly and articulate their thoughts effectively. Some students displayed strong communication skills, while others took the opportunity to overcome stage fear. The topics covered a wide range of subjects, including current affairs, personal experiences, and general knowledge. Overall, the activity was engaging and interactive, encouraging students to improve their fluency, clarity, and presence of mind. Faculty members appreciated the enthusiasm and efforts of the students, making it a successful and beneficial event.

Feedback

The pick and speak activity was an engaging and effective exercise that encouraged students to think on their feet and articulate their thoughts clearly.

It helped to improve confidence, public speaking skills, and spontaneity. The diverse topics kept the session interesting, and it was great to see active participation from everyone. A well-organized event that successfully enhanced communication skills.
