17	Summary of the Event (Around 100 words)	The Department of B.Com organized a industrial visit to ISIRI Farms for second year B.Com students as part of their academic curriculum to gain practical exposure to agricultural and sustainable business practices. The visit aimed to bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and real-world applications. During the visit, students were introduced to various farming techniques adopted at ISIRI Farms, including organic farming, sustainable cultivation methods, and resource management practices. The farm management provided detailed insights into the A2 milk, dairy products, and educating about fresh milk, operational aspects such as production planning, cost management, marketing of farm products, and eco-friendly initiatives. Overall, the industrial visit was an enriching experience, enhancing students' knowledge of agribusiness management and encouraging them to think about sustainable and ethical business practices.
