STUDENT FEEDBACK

I recently participated in the flow chart making competition held by the Literary cell- Akshara. It was a well organized event with proper support and guidance of the incharge teachers. The student coordinators were of great help. It was a participative event which helped in better language understanding.

College by conducting such interactive events, is helping and encouraging students to discover their creative side and have a refreshing time apart from the curriculum. Hope college conducts more such events and help in creating a knowledge gaining and language learning session. Thank You!
