Hindi Diwas Celebration by Hindi Parishad - Vedanta

नमस्ते, सभी को हिंदी दिवस की हार्दिक शुभकामनाएँ!

On this auspicious occasion of Hindi Diwas, we, at Hindi Parishad - Vedanta, come together with great pride and joy to celebrate the language that forms the very soul of our cultural and national identity—Hindi.

Hindi Diwas, observed every year on the 14th of September, commemorates the historic decision of our Constituent Assembly in 1949 to adopt Hindi, written in the Devanagari script, as the official language of the Republic of India. It is a day to reflect on the beauty, simplicity, and profound strength of our rajbhasha (राजभाषा) and to renew our commitment to its promotion and preservation.

But our celebration goes beyond mere remembrance. For Hindi Parishad - Vedanta, this day is a vibrant festival of expression. It is a platform where the timeless wisdom of Vedanta—the philosophical essence of our ancient scriptures—meets the dynamic and evolving medium of Hindi. We believe that Hindi is not just a language of everyday communication but a powerful vessel capable of carrying the deepest philosophical and spiritual ideas to every corner of society.

The goal of Hindi Parishad is to:

Promote the use of Hindi in literary, academic, and creative spheres.

Bridge the gap between our rich ancient knowledge and the contemporary Hindi-speaking populace.

Inspire the younger generation to take pride in their linguistic heritage.

Provide a platform for poets, writers, thinkers, and orators to showcase their talent.

Today, as we mark this significant day, we invite you to immerse yourself in a world of words and wisdom. Through vichaar goshti (thought-provoking discussions), and cultural performances, we will explore the incredible depth and versatility of Hindi.
