24.	Summary of the Event (Around 100 words)	The Department of Management of Dayananda Sagar College of Arts, Science and Commerce successfully organized a Guest Lecture on "Conflict Management in Modern Organisations" for II Semester BBA students on 7 th May 2026. The session was delivered by Mr. Veeramani an NLP Trainer & Business Development Director. The resource person provided valuable insights into the concept of conflict, its causes, and the importance of effective conflict management in modern organizations. He explained the various types and stages of conflict in an engaging and interactive manner. To make the session more relatable and interesting, he used examples from popular Bollywood movies such as Dangal, Taare Zameen Par, and Zindagi Na Milegi Dobara. Through these movies, students were able to understand emotional conflicts, interpersonal conflicts, and strategies for overcoming challenges in both personal and professional life. The session was highly interactive, insightful, and enriched students with practical approaches to managing conflicts and building better communication skills.

a session for conflict management ~~and~~ in modern organisation as very enlightful where it was helpful for us to know about the concept and the person was very interactive and it is helpful for us to improve our skills and to understand the concept as well. We understood how useful this session was in our real life and it helps us to grow our business, etc... In this modern world it was very useful to understand about the concept. The overall session was very interesting.

The session was highly engaging and successfully transformed a complex topic into something relatable. The decision to use cinematic examples to illustrate different conflict types was a masterstroke - It moved the discussion from textbook definition to real life scenarios that are easy to visualize & remember. I walked away with a much clearer understanding to how to identify the sorts of conflict. The speaker was successful in keeping the energy high throughout the session.
