A dynamic workshop designed to ignite entrepreneurial thinking and transform ideas into action was held for our BBA and BCom students. Led by the inspiring Mr. Subramanya V, Experiential Learning Strategist, the bootcamp offered a hands-on journey through the startup lifecycle—from ideation and validation to pitching and execution. Through interactive modules, real-world simulations, and collaborative activities, students explored:

Brief Profile: Subramanya V

Mr. Subramanya V — a dynamic experiential learning strategist and human capital cultivator with over 7 years of rich, cross-sectoral experience. Subramanya is not just an educator; he is a transformation catalyst who blends academic insight, industry relevance, and deep social intelligence into every engagement he undertakes.

A certified soft skills trainer and CSR professional, he has trained thousands of students and professionals through gamified and immersive learning experiences. His impactful work ranges from life skills education and entrepreneurship workshops to CSR-led employability initiatives across educational institutions and NGOs. He's also been instrumental in faculty development, curriculum design, and hybrid pedagogy implementation aligned with NEP and SDG goals.

Subramanya's approach stands out for its creativity — integrating storytelling, roleplay, and real-world simulations to make learning relevant and memorable. Whether as a visiting faculty, former analyst at Ernst & Young, or ISR consultant, his mission remains the same: to inspire, equip, and elevate people through purposeful learning.

Entrepreneurship Club program

First of all, I would thank faculties for organising a wonderful program and appointing a skilled mentor. who is professional, mindful while demonstrating the essence of entrepreneurship. the program was lively, motivating and goal objective.

the event consisted with lot of fun activities which helped us to interact, concentrate, coordinate and improve our communication skills.

It gave us real time experience by making us do prepare business model and identify our strengths and weakness.

mentor used the duration of time efficiently with his brilliance.

It was effective, knowledgeable program and it was more career perspective and helps us for achieving future goals.
