The event aimed to promote Sanskrit language and literature while enhancing students' oratory skills. Commerce students delivered insightful speeches on topics from the Ramayana, Mahabharata, and other aspects of Sanskrit literature. All participants spoke with confidence and enthusiasm, reflecting their deep appreciation for India's cultural heritage. The program successfully encouraged cultural pride, improved public speaking abilities, and highlighted the timeless relevance of Sanskrit. Faculty appreciated the students' dedication, making the event a memorable success.

STUDEN FEEDBACK

The competition was very nicely held. It helped me build self confidence to speak in front of others. The college provided a great platform to showcase our knowledge and speaking skills in Sanskrit language. I especially appreciate the encouragement given to all participants by our Sir, regardless of their performance level.

Hoping to take part in more events held in the literary cell. Thank you.

STUDEN FEEDBACK

The competition was conducted in a engaging manner. A wonderful opportunity for students to show their talent. The students had their own choice of topic which made us think creatively. The session was great and informative. There was healthy competition between us. Sir gave us encouragement to participate in the competition. Hoping to attend more such competitions. Thankyou.
