Summary of the Event (Minimum 100 words)	Under the guidance of IQAC-Institutional Social Responsibility [ISR] Cell-DSCASC organized a Blood Donation Camp on the account of world blood cancer day in collaboration with Oracle Volunteering. The Oracle Volunteering conducted an event to mark World Blood Cancer Day by DKMS-BMST Foundation, India, a non-profit organization dedicated to the fight against blood cancer. The speaker Mr. Mazin started the session with orientation of DKMS-BMST foundation. He explained the scenario where white blood stem cell transplant is the only lifesaving treatment option for patients with blood cancer. As there was lack of awareness about the treatment it is a race against time for patients to find a matching donor. The volunteering team explained types of Blood Cancer and gave the problems of unavailability of stem cell donor faced by Indian patients in the current scenario. The team motivated students towards stem cell donors. They explained registration process in detail. Students of DSCASC actively participated in the event and came forward for stem cell donation. The first step to register as a Blood stem cell was swab test. Around 150 students registered for Stem Cell Donor Process. The active participation of students was highly appreciable.
