The day 5 lecture was delivered by Mr. Ramesh K N, Deputy Superintendent of Police, Karnataka State Police Department and the event was presided over by the Vice Principal and attended by the College Anti Ragging Committee and Students of BCA First Year.

Mr. Ramesh K N in his address to the students spoke about Rights and duties of a citizen, how will serve as a guide to human conduct and relationship in the society. And therefore, what are the limits to rights and duties will enable citizens to control themselves in the society. Rights, when they are respected will help to guarantee peace in the society and therefore help to ensure political stability in the society. The rules and laws are for due process, which will be ensured when citizens perform their rights and duties to the state. When people obey the law, there will be discipline in the society. This will guarantee an orderly society.

The next session was taken by Brigadier MRK Rajesh Panickar VSM - Vishist Seva Medal, he talked on Self-Motivation & Disciplined, first he started with an introduction to Self-motivation, what does a human do when he is self- motivated and he will always want to give their best and will often take responsibility even when they don't have to. He also said how Self-motivated people will have the tendency upon working. It pushes an individual to achieve goals, feel fulfilled and improve their quality of life. Then he started to about discipline, how a person should be disciplined in every aspect of life and also, he stated that how everyone follow discipline in his/her life in a different form. Besides, everyone has his own prospect of discipline. Some people consider it a part of their life and some don't. It is the guide that availability directs a person on the right path. He mentioned that without discipline, the life of a person will become dull and inactive. Also, a disciplined person can control and handle the situation of living in a sophisticated way than those who do not. Moreover, if you have a plan and you want to implement it in your life then you need discipline. It makes things easy for you to handle and ultimately bring success to your life.
