21.	Summary of the Event	The department of BCA conducted a Pot painting completion under student activity cell-SANCHALANA. It was an event where the students had to paint the earthen pot. The themes were decided by the students where the participants came up with the diverse state of mind and painted the pots very artistically. This event helped them to enhance their creative skills and talent. The students enjoyed and did the artwork very enthusiastically. This activity will surely boost their confidence, creativity and interest in art. The judgement panel decided the prizes to the participants.
