Feedback

This is regarding about the feedback of the session held on "Developing Smart Study Skills in Theoretical Aspects" as on 24/01/2024.

Firstly, the topic or the content that was taken was something that is very essential for us at this point of time. Secondly, the presentation that was presented was colourful and attractive with minimal pictures with it.

To follow that presentation was also very easy.

Nextly, the interaction done with the students was also good. and the activities that were performed during the session made everyone to think critical and creatively and also allowed us to understand the importance of team work. All those information given like, study skill, techniques, distractions, much more were very essential for us.

Thank You Dr. Abhinandan N. sir for providing such a wonderful speech and session for us
