24	Summary of the Event (Around 100 words)	The Finance Club successfully organized a case study activity for BCom students on the topic "Bringing Banking to Rural India - The Story of Meera." The session helped students understand the importance of financial inclusion and rural banking services. Students actively participated in discussions on digital banking, microfinance, and government schemes such as Pradhan Mantri Jan Dhan Yojana. The activity was informative and enhanced students' knowledge about the role of banking in rural economic development.
