24.	Summary of the Event	The MBA Department organised an Alumni Mentoring Programme on Placements on 22 December 2025 for first-year MBA students. The session was addressed by Ms. Monika, an alumna of the department, who shared her insights based on industry exposure and placement experiences. The programme covered important aspects such as campus placement processes, resume preparation, and effective strategies for group discussions and personal interviews. Ms. Monika emphasised the importance of skill alignment, clear communication, and consistent preparation to succeed in recruitment processes. The session was interactive and informative, enabling students to gain practical guidance and better preparedness for upcoming placement opportunities.
