Summary of the Event (Around 100 words)	The Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR) outbound event was held on 22nd January 2026 at Shree Shanthi Nilaya Old Age Home, with the active participation of 43 MBA students. Designed as a "Joy and Companionship" initiative, the event focused on enhancing the emotional well-being of elderly residents through meaningful engagement. Students organized enjoyable games suited to the comfort and abilities of the residents, creating a lively and inclusive environment. They also distributed cakes and samosas, adding a festive spirit to the occasion. A key highlight was the cultural program, where students performed songs and dances, which were warmly appreciated. The initiative allowed students to connect with the elderly, understand their emotional needs, and experience the joy of giving back.

Learning Experience from

ISR Activity

Date - 22/01/2026

Name - K.P. Akash

The ISR visit to Sai Shanthi Nilayam old-age home was a meaningful and eye-opening experience for me. As the event lead, I learned the importance of planning, teamwork to ensure the execution of the activity.

Interacting with the elderly helped me understand their emotion needs & the value of compassion and empathy.

I realized how small gestures like spending time, listening, & engaging in activity can bring happiness to others.

Managing volunteers taught me leadership skills and how to handle responsibilities calmly. The visit enhanced my communication skills & confidence in organizing social events.

The cultural activity helped create a joyful atmosphere & strengthened our bond with the residents.

Overall, the ISR visit was a memorable learning experience that contributes to my personal & social development.

As part of our social responsibility and value based learning, we visited an old age home to understand the life, needs and experiences of elderly people. The visit helped us develop empathy, respect and awareness about the challenges faced by senior citizens in today's society.

On 22/11/2026, as a part of ISR activity we visited an old age home in yeshwantpur called Shree Shanati nilaya organized by Asra Ahmed mam.

During our visit, we interacted with the residents and listened to their life stories and experience. Few of them shared their life stories & experiences of memories, struggles & feelings of loneliness.

We also contributed some food items, money and some clothing. We also participated in activities like singing, dancing and game which made them happy.

The visit to the old age home was a meaningful & eye-opening experience. It reminded us of our moral duty to care for elderly and treat them with love and dignity.

VYSHALI (SECTION A)

On 22nd January, we visited an old age home named Shree Shanthi Nilaya in Yeshwanthpur as part of our ISR activity. We began the visit by introducing ourselves and interacting with the elderly residents. Few of us conducted some cultural activities such as singing, dancing and simple games to engage them. The residents actively participated. This visit helped us develop empathy and valuable lessons about patience, strength & gratitude. The two hours spent at the home was so meaningful and heart-touching.
