Feedback

The martyr's day program was a meaningful and well-organised event that helped us understand the values of sacrifice, truth and non-violence practised by Mahatma Gandhi. The collaboration between the Gandhi Study centre and NSS unit made the session informative and inspiring. The speeches and activities encouraged students to reflect on our responsibilities as citizens and to follow Gandhian principles in our daily lives.

The Martyr's Day celebration created a respectful and reflective atmosphere on campus. The program effectively highlighted the importance of remembering our national leaders and their sacrifices. It was an enriching experience that motivated students to uphold ethical values, social responsibility, and patriotism, making the event both educational and impactful.
