"World Earth day"

The seminar on the earth day Celebrating and Protecting our planet" was a truly enlightening experience. It helped me understand the pressing environmental issues we faced today, such as climate change and bio diversity loss. I was particularly moved by the emphasis on how our daily actions impact the planet and the importance of adopting sustainable habits. The discussion on the global initiatives like the Great Global Cleanup and Canopy project inspired me to contribute more actively. Overall, the seminar was informative & motivating, encouraging us to take responsibility and be part of the solution for a greener future.

Aswini

The seminar on 'Earth Day - celebrating and protecting Our planet' was both informative and thought-provoking. It shed light on the critical environmental issues affecting our world today, such as climate change, plastic pollution and deforestation. I appreciated learning about the practical steps we can take to make a difference, like reducing waste, conserving energy, & supporting reforestation. The introduction to global initiatives like the Great Global Cleanup and the Canopy Project was particularly inspiring, showing how small actions can contribute to large-scale impact. This seminar encouraged me to be more environmentally responsible and take active steps towards a sustainable lifestyle.
