23.	Summary of the Event (Around 100 words)	The Department of M.Com successfully organised a creative and inspiring Collage Making Competition on 12th November 2025, centered on the theme "Milestones of Mahatma Gandhi During the Freedom Struggle." The event aimed to blend artistic expression with historical understanding, encouraging students to revisit the major turning points shaped by Gandhiji's leadership in India's fight for independence. Participants showcased their creativity by portraying key moments that transformed the nation. Various milestones highlighted in the collages included the Champaran Satyagraha (1917)—Gandhiji's first major victory using non-violent resistance; the Non-Cooperation Movement (1920), which united millions across India in peaceful protest; and the Salt March/Dandi March (1930), a powerful symbol of civil disobedience that shook the foundations of British authority. Students also depicted the Quit India Movement (1942), one of the most decisive calls for complete independence, along with significant ideals promoted by Gandhi such as truth, non-violence, swaraj, self-reliance, and communal harmony. Through colours, cut-outs, and thoughtful arrangements, the participants reflected how these milestones not only challenged colonial rule but also awakened a collective national spirit. The competition served as a meaningful educational activity, motivating students to understand the deeper impact of Gandhian philosophy on India's freedom trajectory. The event concluded with appreciation for the students' artistic efforts and insightful representation of history. Overall, the collage-making event was a vibrant tribute to Mahatma Gandhi, whose milestones continue to inspire generations to value peace, courage, and unity in the pursuit of justice.
