23.	Summary of the Event	The Business Analytics course orientation for BBA students provided a roadmap for success in this in-demand field. Students gained a clear understanding of the course structure, learning objectives, and assessment methods. They also met their instructor and learned about their expertise in business analytics. The orientation highlighted the essential software and tools students will be using, along with valuable learning strategies specifically tailored for BBA students. This session emphasized open communication, encouraging students to ask questions throughout the course to ensure a successful learning experience. With this foundation in place, BBA students are now prepared to embark on their journey to become data-driven business professionals.
